DEFECTIVE TENEMENT HOUSES. CULARS OF THE LATE TRA EDY IN NEW YORK-SEVEN PERSONS S F-TOCATED.

The New York Post gives the following articulars of the late fire in a tenement ouse of that city, which caused the death of no less than seven persons:

of no less than seven pgrsons:

Between two and three o clock this morning a fire was discovered in the hasement of No. 55% Second avenue, by the police of the Twenty-first precinct. The building was a four-story brick tenement house, occupied on the first floor and basement by Maximilian Miller as a hakery, and on the upper floors by a large number of tenants.

and police directed their efforts to rescuing the persona in the upper part of the building, but owing to the dense smoke that had gathered in the upper stories were only partly successful.

The fire originated near the stairway, and the flames and smoke quickly prevented egress by that means. The situation of the occupants on the upper floors, who were awakened before the flames suffocat ed them, was terrible. One woman in her frenzy leaped from a third-story window.
The firemen and policemen labored nobly, The firemen and policemen labored nobly, and succeeded in saving several lives. Engineer Rose, whi e endeavoring to take out some of the tenants from an upper window, was nearly sufficated.

It is supposed that the fire had been burning a long time before it was discovered.

The use of the tungsten has been proposed as a substitute for the black diamond used in drilling rocks. A substance can be prepared, by fissing the mineralin the oxygen flame, that will pulverize the hardest granite as readily as the black diamond. It can be obtained, as asserted, in any form and of any dimensions, equally applicable for drilling rocks and for working tempered steel.

A Dutchman in the Papal army at Mentana received almost at the same moment three bullets in his breast. He placed a finger successively into each wound, exclaiming, "In the name of the Father—and of the Son—and of the Holy Ghost," and expired.

BETTEN OF THE LOST ERIDDERGON.

Col. Parker explains his absence from his own wedding by saying he met one of his own wedding by saying he met one of his own wedding. It can be obtained, as asserted, in asleep, and when he awoke the Indian was goue, and it was too late for him. He took the medicine and fell asleep again. When he awoke sgain the Indian was goue, and it was too late for the wedding. It is supposed the Six Nation Indians, of which Col. Parker is Chief, are opposed to his marrying a white girl. Gen. Grant will investigate the matter, and ascertain whether Col. Parkers report is correct or not. The use of the tungsten has been proposed as a substitute for the black diamond used in drilling rocks. A substance can be prepared, by fusing the mineral in the oxygen flame, that will pulverize the hardest granite as readily as the black diamond. More About the Lake Shore Accident.

C. A. Dana buys the New York Sun. A Fire, a Suicide, and Another Railroad Accident.

THE LAKE SHORE ACCIDENT.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 20. It seems pretty certain that the real cause of the horrible railroad accident was cause of the horrible railroad accident was the hreaking of a wheel on the hind car. It is thought the majority in the burned car were instantly killed by the concussion when it fell and struck the ice. There were forty-four dead recovered from the car, twenty three in a condition to be recognized and twenty-one so charred as to be unrecognizable. Two more of the dead have heen recognized—W. W. Turner and J. Alexander Martin, both of Erie.

Burfalo, Dec. 20. The papers are still filled with the parral bodies have been taken from here by cral bodies have been taken from here by friends twenty are still heyond all recognition. The bodies of Jasper and Eunice Fuller were recognized this moruing by their parents. Among the buried have been discovered W. W. Towner and G. D. Kent and wife, the last two only married last Thursday at Tomawanda. R. B. Groves, of Jackson, Michigan, was identified last night. A. E. Fisher died at Angola last night.

DANA AND THE SUN. DAYA AND THE SEN.

Dana has purchased the Snn office, and will remove it to his own establishment, and will continue it, it is said, under the old name, abandoning the title of Republic. The price paid is reported at $25,000. One ebject in purchasing the Sun is to get the Associated Press dispatches.

THE AT HUDSON CITY.

Frances Harringt n, al'as Hattie Howard, who resided at 71 Crossy street, died last evening very suddenly from the effects, it is supposed, of poison administered by herseif. It appears that she had quarreled with her lover and become so depressed that she committed suicide.

Yesterday morning an accident occur-red on the Hudson River Railway at Phineback. An extra train of twenty-six cars dashed into the Trey freight train, standing in front of the station, demolish-ing the passenger and several freight cars. rously, as they got out of the car het're
